THIS MONTH OF MAY.—The month of May, which began yesterday, has a peculiar significance in the Roman Catholic Church, it being specially devoted to the Virgin Mary. Daily services are held in all the churches in honor and veneration of the Blessed Virgin—these services continuing until the entire month. At St. Peter's Cathedral the services will be held every evening at 6 o'clock.

CORRECTION OF ELECTION RETURNS.—The following act, "to provide for amending and correcting informality in the several elections, and to provide for the Governor on the 20th ultimo," was enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia. That if it shall appear to any board of election commissioners in determining the persons who have received the greatest number of votes for the several offices voted for in such election, that irregularities or informality in the returns of the judges or clerks of election which can be cured by amending or correcting the same, it shall be the duty of said board of commissioners immediately to summon the said judges and clerks, or such of them as may be requisite, to appear before said board on some day not exceeding five days from the date of the summons, for the purpose of amending such returns so that the same may conform to law. The summons may be executed by any sheriff, constable, or township collector, or by any qualified voter, who shall receive for such service a compensation of fifty cents for each person summoned, to be paid by the township in which the judge or clerks reside. This act shall be in force from its passage.

ACCIDENT AT COALFIELD PITS.—Yesterday morning Messrs. Charles and Fred Robbins, while at work in the old Alma pits, near Coalfield depot, Chesterfield county, attempted to lift a board from the drain well, which was six or seven feet deep, and while stooping over the "black damp" struck them and knocked them down the well. In the fall Mr. Charles Robbins had one of his ribs broken and was otherwise bruised. His brother was also badly injured, and is not expected to recover. After they were gotten out they were taken to the residence of their father, Mr. John Robbins, lying dangerously ill with consumption.
